

Working with Controlled Substances at Rutgers

Annual Online Training

Access online training through eIACUC.rutgers.edu

Electronic Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (EIIACUC)

The eIACUC system is a web-based application for the routing and tracking of IACUC submissions.

Previous Updates

Instructions for New Animal Users

Contact Us

Orientation Training

AALAS LEARNING LIBRARY

ORIENTATION TO ANIMAL CARE AND USE AT RUTGERS
Mandatory PI and Personnel training. Based on "Working with the IACUC: non-VA version".

AALAS CEUs: 0 for completing course and passing exam

- 1. Introduction
- 2. Federal, State and University Laws, Regulations, Guidelines and Policies
- Use Program
- Process
- Form
- and the Guide
- ent, or Non-Compliance
- Agents in Animals

Group Courses

- Common Compliance Issues
- Field Studies of Vertebrate Animals
- Help: Using the AALAS Learning Library at Rutgers
- Introduction to use of Mice at Rutgers
- Orientation to Animal Care and Use at Rutgers
- Working with Controlled Substances (Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey)

“Working with Controlled Substances at Rutgers” is listed under “Group Courses”

Complete the exam and print out your CEU certificate

AALAS LEARNING LIBRARY

This certifies that on 07-30-2018
Amy Grabowski
of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
Completed the course and passed the examination for Working with Controlled Substances (Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey) and earned 0.25 CEU(s) on the AALAS LearningLibrary

Exam ID: 4600563

Amy Grabowski
Amy Grabowski, PhD, FASAC, CAE
Executive Director, AALAS

Training Documentation will be added to eIACUC.