

Included in per diem costs

- Routine and standard husbandry (Including sterile mouse and rat caging)
- Routine cage changes (per RUAC standard practices)
- Routine health care (Diagnostics & Treatment)
- Emergency Care (Not caused by research protocols)
- Self-Injury Care (Suturing, wound care)
- Daily Vet and Vet Tech Rounds
- Routine dental care (USDA species only)
- Routine sentinel program (Testing/Bleeding) *
- Occupational health monitor or exposures including animal bites and scratches
- Disease outbreak management (Manpower, PPE, diagnostics, and lab tests, etc.)
- Euthanasia-related carcass or tissue disposal
- Diagnostic necropsies
- Standard bedding, feed, and environmental enrichment
- Vendor health management (vendor quality and vendor approvals)
- Training & protocol development
- Animal procurement services
- Routine facility inspections, maintenance, and repairs
- Routine billing

*Some exotics or less frequently utilized species not included.

Not included in per diem costs, charged as technical services

- Quarantine Assays
- Quarantine management from unapproved vendors
- Special husbandry requests
- Rederivation procedures
- Research Activities (Injections, Tissue samples, Anesthesia, Surgical Support Post-Op care, and breeding services)
- Non-Standard bedding, feed and/or environmental enrichment
- Special technical services including drugs, supplies or materials requested by PIs
- Special PPE request
- Unapproved transfers, imports/exports, or shipping costs
- Emergency care or treatments caused by research activities
- Research related necropsies
- Shipping and crate fees
- Import & Export fees
- Extra cage changes beyond RUAC standard practices due to research model or protocol requirements
- Special equipment/room installation, storage, or removal costs
- Special housing or room segregation requests
- Dedicated housing or procedure room requests
- Special invoicing requests